Report of the School Board.

TO THE CITIZENS OF NORTH HAMPTON :

“ If little labor, little are our gains;
Man's fortunes are according to his pains.”

Thoroughness is one of the chief essentials to progress in the work of our schools ; for merely superficial knowledge amounts to little in preparing youth for the duties and experiences of manhood and womanhood. Thoroughness on the part of the pupil as well as of the teacher is necessary to produce the desired results. If a boy or girl does not learn—and learn much—in our schools, it is mostly their own fault, as we have a corps of teachers who are very faithful, taking great interest in their pupils.

We feel that excellent work has been done during the past year, but we cannot take the results and show you as we would pick up a handful of gems, yet future years may show North Hampton's brow adorned with some of them.

The East school has been this year, as last, very efficiently taught by Miss Lillian Porter, whose methods of teaching and discipline are of a very high order.

During the spring term the Center schools were taught by Miss Nettie E. Campbell and Miss Edith M. Child respectively. Miss Campbell has remained with us in the Grammar school during the year, as ever working faithfully for the advancement of her pupils and highly regarded by them and the townspeople. Much to our regret Miss Child was not able to come back to the Primary school at the beginning of the year, on account of illness in her family. It was unanimously decided to get a substitute for one term, with the expectation that our former teacher would return for the rest of the year. She has done so and has been warmly welcomed, her proficiency in her chosen calling being unquestioned. Our substitute for the fall term, Miss Gertrude Spencer, did excellent work and made many friends in the town.

At the close of the spring term there were three graduates from the ninth grade at the Center Grammar school. As only a few pupils wished to take the ninth grade, your committee decided that it should be discontinued this present year. The assistant at the Center Grammar school during the spring term, Miss Lucy M. Warner, succeeded well in her department and showed excellent qualifications for a teacher. As there is no ninth grade this present year, it has been found unnecessary to hire an assistant. We have, however, hired a music teacher for all our schools. Mr. C. L. Akeley, who serves in this capacity, has had large experience in teaching music, and is especially adapted to this branch of education.

The attendance during the first term of this year has averaged high in all of the schools. There seems to be an earnest, interested spirit among many of the pupils.

The School Board remains the same this year with the exception of one member. Mr. Emmons T. Brown, who served us very faithfully, declined to take the office again, and Rev. D. H. Evans was chosen. The latter having resigned the position, Rev. N. T. Ridlon was appointed for the remainder of the year.

The Alton Spellers have been introduced into the Center Grammar School and the Second Reader of the Harmonic Natural Music Course. A few other new books have been purchased, but no special changes made. Six blackboards of Lithoplate have been put on the walls of the East school room. The substance of which they are made is very smooth and durable, far surpassing the old ones.

A sand table has also been provided for the same school, whereby the little ones can get very vivid ideas of mountains, valleys, rivers, etc., in the study of Geography.

There are thirty-seven weeks in the school year.

The number of pupils registered in each school are: Center Grammar, 31; Center Primary, 25; East School, 21; making in all who attend school in town, 77.

Of those who go out of town there are fourteen at Hampton Academy, one at Portsmouth High school and one at Robinson Seminary, Exeter.

The following are the names of those whose tuition is paid by the town :

At Hampton—Leon Berry, Henry Philbrook, Stanley Knowles, James Leavitt, Ethel Johnston, Amy Fenwick, Blanche Knowles, Lemira Hobbs, Marion Lane, Louise Lane, Mae Moulton, Mabel Philbrook, Content Ward, Flora Taylor.

At Portsmouth —Arnold Smith.

At Exeter—Carrie C. Bachelder.
